About Danish-Chinese Business Forum

Danish-Chinese Business Forum is an independent, executive, non-profit organisation that aims to strengthen commercial ties between Denmark, southern Sweden and China.

Danish-Chinese Business Forum acts as an enabler of knowledge exchange among companies and organisations with a common interest in Chinese business relations.

Focal areas	Sectors
• Sourcing & Import	• Energy and Cleantech
• Establishment of subsidiary	• Life Science
• Selling in China	• Education
• Legal issues	• Design
• Financial issues	• Agriculture
• And more	• And more

Members of Danish-Chinese Business Forum are connected to Scandinavia's most China-experienced executives. As a member, you will be able to exchange views with more than 500 business executives with first hand experience of doing business in China.

Founded in 2005 the network today counts more than 150 member companies and organisations, whose combined strengths affect the decision-makers.

Danish-Chinese Business Forum saves you time and resources and increases your possibilities to succeed in China. Danish-Chinese Business Forum gives you the tools to get it right the first time.

Benefits

Business Network

As a member of Danish-Chinese Business Forum, you will be a part of the largest and most influential commercial China-network in Denmark and southern Sweden. Membership gives you the opportunity to build personal connections with Scandinavia's most experienced executives within China-related business areas and direct access to both commercial and political decision-makers. A key value-adding feature of the network is informal exchange of knowledge and experiences among the members.

Knowledge Base

Danish-Chinese Business Forum's knowledge base provides contact information for selected experts in the forum. The knowledge base equips you with a fast and focused access to expert knowledge relevant to your company's activities and projects. The knowledge base further contains text resources in 35 business areas allowing you to keep your knowledge up to date. The knowledge base gives you a starting point for new activities in China.

Working Groups

Danish-Chinese Business Forum's working groups consists of 5-40 member companies that meet for round table discussions and knowledge exchange. The working groups are established on members' request with the purpose to generate and benefit from network synergies in specific business areas and/or industries.

The working groups unify members in sector specific groups. The work is targeted on concrete issues and is problem-based. The efficient working method limits both time and resource consumption.

Newsletter

Danish-Chinese Business Forum issues two different newsletters four times per times. The general Newsletter contains articles on the latest developments in China and how this affects the terms of doing business. The articles are written by executives with great China experience, official representatives, leading experts and researchers. The Legal and Tax Updates are issued in cooperation with Eversheds Law Firm and KPMG and contains relevant and valuable updates on legal and tax issues.

Benefits

Member Meetings

The monthly member meetings provide valuable knowledge about the current development in China and allow top-level executives to meet and share experiences and knowledge. Participating in the meetings gives you the tools to foresee and avoid costly pit-falls.
